NEW YORK

There are three Indian casinos located in upstate New York. The term of the compact between the tribes and the state allow only table game and slot machines are not permitted.

All of the tribes have video gaming machines which offer slot-style games, plus keno and poker. These machines do not pay out in cash. Instead, they print out a receipt which must be exchanged for cash.

In October 2001 the New York Assembly passed legislation to expand gambling within the state by allowing up to six Indian casinos. Three the casinos would be located in the western half of the state and the other three would be located in the Catskills (about a three-hour drive from midtown Manhattan).

As of August 2003 the only Indian casino to open was in Niagara Fall and the other casinos were still in the planning stages.

All New York Indian casinos are open 24 hours and offer the followir games: blackjack, craps, roulette, pai gow poker, mini-baccarat, Caribbean stud poker, let it ride, money (big six) wheel and poker. Th minimum gambling age is 21 at Niagara and 18 at the others.

For more information on visiting New York call the state's travel information center at (800) 225-5697.
